Don't Miss this Workshop! If you are thinking about buying a REO property that needs repair, FHA's 203(K) rehabilitation loan may be a good option for you. For the major repairs & more complicated renovation plans, the Standard 203(K) program is the option. Find out about the whole process. We will have a Lender, the Attorney, the Home Inspector/Engineer and the Contractor available to answer ALL your questions. Also, we will share other resources that could help you with making your Rehab home, Your Dream Home!
